LAVAL ONE OF THE SUB-TREASURERS. -Mr. Laval, of whose appointment as Sub-Treasurer at Charleston, S. C. the public is already aware, is a sen Lavai who was the compatriot of Lafayette in the war of the revolution-a noble, high toned generous Frenchman. At General Jackson's incursion into Florida in 1818. Laval was captain under him, and at the siege of Pensacola highly distinguised himself as a brave and desperate warrior. He was designated by Gen. Jackson to take command of the forlorn hope. In one of the narrow streets of Pensacola six peices of artillery, under the best Spanish direction, threatened destruction to the American force which would attempt to take them. This duty was assigned to Capt. Laval. He promptly obeyed, and dividing his company they deployed to the right and left, and uniting in front of the cannon he gave the orders Bronchitis, Pain or Weakness in the Breast of Louge! The first man shot down by Louges Chronic Cough, Pleurisy, Hemorrhage of ployed to the right and left, and uniting the Spaniards was Lavel. He was Birk and Pine of our Nothern Latitudes are the same time he had ordered prepared for him. A surgeon was sent for, who, upon examining the wounded soldier exclaimed aloud, "General he cannot live!" The old hero heard the opinion of the physician, and looking him steadily in the cre for moment exclaimed, "By Eternal, he SHALL live!" He did live, and Laval is Receiver General at Charleston, by "appointment of President Polk, with the advice and consent of Senate."

THE PURSUIT (F PLEASURE. - Cast an eye into the gay world; what see we, for the most most part, but a set of querulous, emanciated, fluttering, fantastical beings; worn out in the keen pursuit of pleasure -- creatures that know, own, condemn, yet still deplore their own felicity! The decayed monuments of error!-the thin remains of what is called delight!
